

Academic Planning Facilitation Committee

Terms of Reference, 2006

1. Terms of Reference

The Academic Planning Facilitation Committee is a committee of Senate, responsible for:

- Ensuring that the principles enunciated in the document “UPEI Academic Planning 2005: Guiding Principles, a report of the Academic Planning Facilitation Committee based on the 2004-2005 consultative process” are widely communicated and provide a framework for discussion of academic initiatives and development;
- Taking a coordinating role, as required, in development of specific themes and through consultation with other themes described in the Academic Planning document; a report of the Academic Planning Facilitation Committee based on the 2004-2005 consultative process
- Submission of an annual report to Senate;
- Creation of sub-committees as necessary;
- Ensuring that the guiding principles are kept under review, and organizing a full formal review of the Guiding Principles document on at least a quinquennial basis.